Teaching and Learning in the Clinical Setting: Two-day Short Course
6 – 7 August 2020

This two-day short course is designed for everyday clinical educators working across a variety of disciplines. Composed of eight core topics, it covers the fundamental knowledge and applied skills to provide a practical, “how to” guide for teaching and learning in the clinical environment. Below are topics covered in previous short courses.

Day 1
- How to plan a tutorial
- How to facilitate a small group
- How to teach in the clinical setting
- How to use feedback for learning

Day 2
- How to assess clinical skills using mini-CEX
- How to supervise clinical students
- How to teach and assess cultural competency
- How to teach clinical reasoning

Venue
Building 6EN, Rm 551, Epsom Campus, The University of Auckland

Cost
Registration $100 (incl GST) for one day or $150 (incl GST) for both days
Morning tea and afternoon tea provided

Please send your name, current position, and contact details to Theresa Huang (theresa.huang@auckland.ac.nz) to register your interest for this course.