Presentations

Saxton P. Actual and undiagnosed HIV infection: Findings from the Get it Wet! study. Paper presented to Department of Preventive and Social Medicine In-House Convention, 2012 Feb 16, Dunedin.

Saxton P. HIV testing for prevention: the New Zealand experience. Departmental research seminar, Department of Preventive and Social Medicine, 2011 Oct 6, Dunedin.

Saxton P. The straw that broke the camel's back? Theories of HIV spread, epidemiology, behavioural surveillance and the question of epidemic tipping points in New Zealand. Lecture presented at: The Australian Research Centre in Sex, Health and Society, La Trobe University, 2009 May 27, Melbourne.

Saxton P. Sexual behaviour in the GAPSS and GOSS studies. Poster presented at: Big Gay Out fair day, 2009 Feb 8, Auckland.

Saxton P, Hughes A. All MSM are not equal; All MSM are equal. Moving from the virus to prevention. Paper presented at: NZAF HIV Prevention Hui, 2008 Oct 23-24, Auckland.

Hughes A. Saxton P. How can we better understand the increased transmission of HIV between MSM in New Zealand? Paper presented at: HIV Forum, 2006 Aug, Auckland.

at: 13th International Union against Sexually Transmitted Infections (IUSTI) Asia Pacific Conference, 2004 Jul 6-9, Chiang Mai, Thailand.

Hughes A. Saxton P. Is testing advantageous for preventing the transmission of HIV? Paper presented at: NZAF staff seminar, 1999 Jun, Auckland.
